

Warming the Space Between Us

How to get the most out of the Teacher-Parent Relationship

July 15 to 20, 2018

Opening: July 15 at 7:00 pm

Closing: July 20 at 3:30 pm

with Louise deForest, Blondine Maurice and Ruth Ker

We live in a fast-paced society with many mixed parenting messages for the parents of our time. Please join Louise deForest, Blondine Maurice and Ruth Ker while they delve into consciously working into the relationships with the parents of the children you accompany in your early childhood classrooms.

Louise, an early childhood teacher for many years, a pedagogical advisor and now a worldwide presenter has worked with this topic in many diverse settings. Blondine brings her studies in attachment parenting, simplicity parenting and the levity of her impromptu clowning work. Ruth, an EC teacher for 35 years, will be offering practical experiences in parent-teacher communication and reflective listening. Let's work for ways to accompany each other in true partnership, holding the adults of tomorrow between us.

One week course, open to all.

at Sunrise Waldorf School in Duncan on Vancouver Island, British Columbia, Canada
