

THE NATURE OF WATER: WHAT MAKES IT GOOD?

July 21 – 26, 2019 updated 24/5/19

	Monday July 22	Tuesday July 23	Wednesday July 24	Thursday July 25	Friday July 26
8:00-8:30	Eurythmy
8:30-9:30	Understanding the Laminar Structure of Water	Train of vortices: Polarity and Unity in Water Flow	Vortex: Nature's design tool	Ring Vortex: Metamorphosis	Climate change: Water as a Mediator of Life & the Human Soul
9:30-10:00	BREAK
10:00-1:00	Clay Modelling - Forming a Drop Bowl - Building a Meander	Form Drawing – Building a Meander	Clay modelling – Form Drawing - Building a Meander	Moving & Making Each Step – the Inner Process	Developing the Theme – Exploring What Water Intends
1:00-2:00	LUNCH
2:00-3:00	Developing the Theme with Art	Field trip to	Practical Applications Stirring Biodynamic Preparations	Eurythmy – Moving a Metamorphosis in Eurythmy	Field trip - Tour Glenora Farm, Camphill Community
3:15-3:45	BREAK
3:45-5:10	Making Waves	Field trip to	Theme of the Day	Field trip to	Presentations to Glenora community - dinner at Alderlea BD farm – evening program at Trillium Hall

SUNDAY 7:00 Registration 7:30 Opening Session – Workshop Preview – Artistic Presentation