

Waldorf Grades Teacher Training

Two and a half years part-time

Next cohort begins summer, 2023

on Vancouver Island, British Columbia

West Coast Institute programming, after 27 years of practice, continues to reflect the current social, emotional and academic needs of our time and thus prepares the Waldorf teacher through commitment to diversity, equity, inclusion in its practices, policies and programs. By building alliances with change makers, anthroposophical, and other vision and mission-aligned communities, WCI prepares Waldorf teachers for the future.

Through academic excellence, collaborative discourse, individual artistic transformation, and practical teaching strategies, the creative wellspring within each student teacher is ignited. You can expect to be heard; you can expect to be supported in carrying your questions.

Length: 2.5 years with three weeks residency in summers, one week residency in November and February respectively until completion. Graduation occurs in February of the third year, plus required field work practicums.
